Volunteering & PRIDE Community Services

All over the country and especially in Logan County, we have demonstrated our determination to “serve goals larger than ourselves” and to build a culture of service and citizenship in the Logan County tradition.

Logan County’s dedicated volunteers are the engine that powers the work that we do at PRIDE Community Services, Inc. It is because of the work and dedication of PRIDE’s volunteers that we are able to achieve our mission. This allows us to extend our reach of services in tackling the truly tough challenges that face many Logan Countians today. You are the proof that volunteer service can contribute a solution to relieving the burdens of thousands of Logan County citizens who live in poverty. Reaching out to others create opportunities to improve disadvantaged situations.

For years PRIDE Community Services, Inc. has depended on the generosity and dedication of its volunteers and their service. As Logan Countians, let’s continue to build on the tradition of helping and supporting each other. We would like to encourage you to continue in freely giving your time, resources and energy to our case as we work TOGETHER for a Better Logan County.

HOW CAN I HELP AT PRIDE COMMUNITY SERVICES?

You may be asking yourself that question as a new Friend of PRIDE Community Services or a potential Friend. We have taken the time to provide you with just a small list of opportunities for you to help your community through PRIDE Community Services. Although this is not an exhaustive list, it will give you a good start.

We look forward to seeing your taking part in one or more of these activities:

- Read to a classroom of children.
- Tutor parents.
- Plan activities for our Senior Centers.
- Share lunch with children or senior participants.
- Plant a flower garden.
- Volunteer at Holidays.
- Be a male role model.
- Deliver meals to homes.
